

I would like to see this petition considered as a viable alternative to standard broadcasting in the event of an emergency. In other times, I feel it would serve to aid those of us with the equipment available to perform maintenance, and keep our receiving equipment in a usable state for those times it is needed. This mode of transmission is easily received, with simple equipment, and would be a definite asset to the Department of Homeland Security in times of emergency.